Oil News.

Aug. 6, 1920.

Medina Oil Development Company is now drilling at 250 feet and still in Blue Shale. The oil which was struck at 142 feet is making from four to five gallons daily with a strong flow of gas. The oil is produced from an oil sand with the blue shale below and above.

We predict that we will strike another strata of oil between three and four hundred feet and another between six to eight hundred either of which may prove commercial and we feel sure that the lower strata will produce not less than eight barrels and probably as much as fifty.

Medina Oil Development Company is built on confidence and operated on honor. The plan is one of truth and business. It is a constructive co-operation and a profit sharing concern. I am anxious to have every one who feels able to assist us to promote this enterprise.

The Price of Cotton.

"The price of the 1920 cotton crop along with what is left of the 1919 crop, will determine several very important things now having the attention of the people of the world.

The producers of cotton and their friends, desire a voice in the price and demand that it include a profit. The speculative and spinning interests desire to prevent this and are not asleep on their job. They generated several schemes during the harvest and sale of the 1919 crop to thwart the aims of the producers and their friends. Whether or not these schemes were hatched by enemies of the producers, such enemies have used them to beat down the price of cotton.

Some of the conditions which have been taken advantage of are: the embargo forbidding the rail roads to haul cotton in West Texas last fall; the long shoremens' strike at Galveston, and the auction of the Federal Reserve Bank Board. The embargo gave an excuse for lowering the local price by saying "We cannot ship it."

The claim of a conspiracy to lower the price is borne out recently by the editor of a prominent New England spinners journal in his answer to charges of a conspiracy to depress the price. He says: "We haven't the least doubt, and we frequently emphasized this point—that foreign manufacturers or buyers of cotton, and domestic buyers as well, have made and are making at present, every possible effort to depress price." This same editor continuing says: "The world does need cotton and will need it in increasing amounts. The cotton grower must protect himself; as certainly no one else will protect him or will pay him one cent more per pound for his cotton than it can be bought at. The dealer would try to buy it at ten cents per pound, even if the cost were 30 cents. He would sell at $1. per pound if it were possible to obtain it." The embargo furnished a splendid opportunity for this conspiracy.

The action of the Reserve Bank Board caused banks to call loans on cotton, which forced it to sell, thus aiding in the scheme to depress the price.

Propaganda is being given out and plans laid to cut the value of the 1920 crop in half. The report of car and ship shortage, which is already depressing the price of wheat; the talk of "tight money"; of a big crop, which is impossible with half a stand over the principle producing sections, and a great deal not in bloom August 1st; while adjoining fields have grown bolts in them and insects demanding toll.

The fact is, as we have frequently stated, more than half of the U. S. crop is needed by foreign countries, which are not in shape to buy in large quantities as fast as we gather. Their condition must be considered, and the sale of our cotton adjusted to their ability to pay. We sold too much cotton last fall. The spinners got three months stock and the speculators about the same. They joined forces to beat the farmers on what they did not get an average of $50. per bale. Still the futures market has averaged as high, and the spinners have paid the speculators as much for cotton all this year as last fall, when the farmer was receiving around 45 cents for his staple. Will we do the same fool thing and sell too much cotton this fall? If the banks and merchants urge or even permit too rapid sale, they will be caught in the same trap that clamped down on their caudal appendages in 1918. There will be very little old cotton on hand when the new crop begins to move freely. What little there will be will be in the hands of the farmers. This gives them the whiphand in making the price next fall, if the local banks and merchants stay behind them. It is the first time in history that the farmers held the carry over. It is the first time in history that they have been absolutely masters of the situation; that is, if the Reserve Banks will adopt a human policy and extend loans of the member banks to the end that the crop may be sold to bring cost of production and a profit. The State Department of Agriculture will give out by Sept. 10th, the report of its cost-finding and price recommending committee. If our credits can be mobilized behind the farmers, the work will be done, which will make certain the prosperity of the farmers and through them of all our people."

INDIGESTION

If you are ever troubled with indigestion, Chamberlain's Tablets will do you good. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. There are hundreds of people who have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. When you feel dull and languid after eating you may know that your digestion is faulty, unless you have eaten more than you should. Belching, sour stomach, bloating are symptoms of indigestion and are relieved by taking Chamberlain's Tablets as directed. Indigestion is usually accompanied by constipation and is aggravated by it. Chamberlain's Tablets cause a gentle movement of the bowels, relieving the constipated condition. Chamberlain's Tablets are also most excellent for nervousness. Sold everywhere at 25c.

A mob of more than 1000 men stormed the county jail at Center, Texas, and took out Lige Daniels, a negro, and hanged him to a limb of an oak tree in the courthouse yard Tuesday. Daniels had confessed that he brutally attacked Mrs. Maggie Hall who was found unconscious at a lonesome place near her home Thursday of last week. Her skull was crushed and her body bruised and lacerated. She died in a sanitarium the next day.

An Old Fault Finder.

An irritable and fault finding disposition is often caused by indigestion. A man with good digestion and bowels that act regularly is usually good natured. When troubled with indigestion or constipation take Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray and son, Frank, left Sunday night for a week's fishing trip near Uvalde. They were joined by Mrs. A. C. Thalman at Hondo. — Devine News.

A Great Remedy.

The merits of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy are well known and appreciated, but there is occasionally a man who had no acquaintance with them and should read the following by F. H. Dear, a hotel man at Dupuyer, Mont. "Four years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy with such wonderful results that I have since recommended it to my friends."

TO RAZE HISTORIC BUILDING

Webster's House in Washington to Make Way for Home of Chamber of Commerce.

Daniel Webster's house in Washington, D. C., on the north side of Lafayette square, opposite the White House, one of the most historic buildings in the capital, will be torn down soon. On the site of this old house will be erected the future home of the chamber of commerce of the United States at a cost of $2,750,000.

Webster's house was better known as the Corcoran house, and was bought for Webster by popular subscription as a gift from the American people, a large part of the money coming from the pennies of school children. After the death of Webster the house was purchased by W. W. Corcoran, who lived there until he died, his heirs having sold the property to the chamber of commerce.

In the Corcoran house Whig policies were discussed and formulated in the days of Webster's greatest activity and influence. Henry Clay was a frequent caller there and many famous statesmen have been guests within its walls.

Urchin Had Developed Decided Streak of Realism at Early Stage of His Career.

J. Jefferson Jones, the New York publisher, said to a realistic novelist the other day:

"No, my boy, I can't bring out your novel. Your novel is realism, and realism is what the American public won't accept. Why? Because realism tells unpleasant truths.

"Realism is like an infant terrible I know. A gentleman was calling on this urchin's pretty mother. The gentleman had an odd swastika ring on his finger, and he held out his hand, palm downward, to show the ring to the infant.

"What do you see there?" he said.

"The infant terrible looked coldly at the back of the gentleman's hand, then answered:

"Freckles and brown hair."

Almost a Stepmother.

Fred was very hungry and it seemed as though dinner would never be ready.

"Give me a cookie, mamma," he pleaded.

"You'd better wait until dinner is ready," his mother advised.

Silence.

"Give me some bread and butter, mamma?" Fred asked.

"It will spoil your dinner to eat now," mother replied.

Silence.

"Can I have an apple, mamma?"

"No," mother answered, rather sharply. "You can't have a bite to eat until dinner is ready."

Fred turned haughtily, and as he walked out of the room observed:

"Sometimes, mamma, I almost think you're a stepmother!"—New York Evening Post.

Followed Father's Advice.

Father was standing before the fire and lecturing his son and heir on the necessity for thinking twice before speaking once.

"Father!" exclaimed the boy in the middle of it.

"The old man" held up a warning finger. "Think again before you speak, and then I will answer you."

The boy pondered for fully five minutes and then said: "Father, I have thought twice, and now I am quite convinced that your coat tails are on fire."

Unpopular Features.

"How's the amateur show coming along?"

"Rehearsals are brisk and we are having a large advance sale of seats. We had to reassure the public, though."

"How so?"

"We announced that Hank Boffit would positively not be permitted to deliver the monologue that gave him a local reputation ten years ago, and the Twobble sisters would not do the dance number they first staged back in 1912."

One on "Muvver."

Mother was very fond of teasing Ethel, her three-year old daughter. It amused her to see those little eyes flash with rage.

But it wasn't having a good effect on Ethel. It was making her very sharp and bitter tongued.

One day mother picked up the new puppy, cuddling it in her arms like an infant, and asked: "Look, Ethel, how do you like my new baby?"

But she didn't smile at the small girl's quick retort: "It's zackly like its muvver."

Competent Man.

"The star witness in this breach of promise suit was the multimillionaire's chauffeur."

"Well?"

"Thanks to his testimony, the chorus lady who was suing for $100,000 was glad to compromise the case for a mere $5,000."

"And what's the aftermath?"

"A dozen other multimillionaires are reported to be trying to hire the chauffeur at his own price."

Shining Up the Back Yard.

Mr. Peavish says that another reason why he thinks Mrs. Peavish carries housekeeping to an extreme is because he has to go out and wipe the dew off the grass every morning to keep the back yard from tarnishing.—Dallas News.

STEPPING STONE TO SUCCESS

First Requisite in Upward Move Is Stern Determination to Practice Habit of Thrift.

The first step toward success is saving money. Inability to save is an unerring indication of weakness.

Those who do not save are the victims of impoverished wills. They know they should save; that their future should be safeguarded in this way; that it is wrong from every viewpoint to spend as much money as they earn, but they do not summon to their support sufficient will power. They yield to the temptation of spending, and then say to themselves that to-morrow or next month they will really begin saving.

The time to begin saving money is today, and the way to save is to make it habitual and systematic. Gladstone's advice was: "To set aside a sum no matter how small from your week's pay. Keep strict account of your income, no matter how small; don't buy anything until you have the money earned to pay for it. Have something ahead for an emergency; do not live from one day to another."

America today is going through an era of disgusting thriftlessness. Never before in the history of the country has there been such rampant waste and extravagance. People are spending money before they earn it. They are getting in debt for things they do not need.

The man who is wise and prudent will spend less than he earns. He will remain master of himself; he will shape his own course. His progress may be slow, but he will move ever onward and upward toward the goal of his ambitions.

The greater sacrifice he makes to get ahead, the stronger and more beautiful will his character become. A personal savings account is a mental and a spiritual gymnasium. Each day it affords him facilities for adding strength and resourcefulness to his moral equipment.

The man who would succeed in life must first learn the lesson of thrift. It may not always bring the success of great accomplishment, but it will carry any man far along the pathway that leads to the heights.—By S. W. Straus, President American Society for Thrift.

The Mincelaying System.

Admiral William S. Sims writes in the World's Work: "If you had been following one of the mine layers while it operates, you would probably have been surprised at the apparent simplicity of the task. The vessel was going at its full speed; at intervals of a few seconds, huge black objects, about five feet high, would be observed gliding toward the stern; at this point they would then give a mighty lurch, fall head first into the water, sending up a great splash, and sink beneath waves. By the time the disturbance was over the ship would have advanced a considerable distance; then, in a few seconds, another black object would roll toward the stern, make a similar plunge and disappear."

Bicycle Impressed Indians.

The Indians, who were brought to Winnipeg from the far north to participate in the Hudson's bay anniversary pageant, some of whom had never been in a large city before, when asked what they thought was the most wonderful thing witnessed here, declared it to be the bicycle. The reason for this, it is said, is because he can see the working of the bicycle, whereas he fails to understand the mechanism of the locomotive engine, the airplane, the automobile or the immense structures of the city.

Labor Is Welcome.

I hear therefore with joy whatever is beginning to be said of the dignity and necessity of labor to every citizen. There is virtue yet in the hoe and the spade, for learned as well as for unlearned hands. And labor is everywhere welcome; always we are invited to work; only be this limitation observed, that a man shall not for the sake of wider activity sacrifice any opinion to the popular judgments and modes of action.—Emerson.

Jap Youths Study Languages.

Yokohama now has a school of languages for Japanese young men, started with the idea of promoting the development of foreign trade. The school was officially opened in Honmoku recently. Modern languages will be made a special study, although allied subjects are included in the curriculum. The popularity of the project is assured by the large class which numbered 180 pupils.—North China Herald.

The Rage.

The movie star was sobbing as if her heart would break.

"What's the matter, dearie?" asked her friends.

"I want to get a divorce," replied the teary one, "but my husband is so good to me that I cannot find any grounds."—Film Fun.

No Wonder.

Otis—You say that something at the banquet last night disgusted you?

Chester—Yes! I had too much climate. Sat between a California native son and a man from Florida!—New York Evening Post.

Temporary Truce.

Grace—I hear that Charles and Helen have made up their quarrel.

Gussie—Only temporarily. They are going to be married soon.—Edinburgh Scotsman.

Peril of Growing Pains.

Little John had put in a very hard day of playing and that night he said, "Mother, oh, how my knee aches!"

"That is just a growing pain and will be all right in the morning," replied his mother.

At that John exclaimed: "But the pain is in just one knee, and is one of my legs going to be longer than the other?"

To Mend Broken China.

A cheap and easily prepared cement for broken china is lime mixed with the white of an egg. Only take sufficient white of an egg to mend one article at a time, and mix thoroughly with a small quantity of lime. Apply the mixture to the place where the article is broken, and in a short time the cement will set and become quite hard.

Music's Charms.

"I like plenty of music at a political gathering," remarked Senator Sorghum.

"You think it has a calming influence?"

"Undoubtedly. The great beauty about a brass band is that it can't be heckled."

The Test of the Two Violins

Violins differ subtly in tone! Test the New Edison Realism by that fact.

We have an "Ave Maria" RE-CREATION played by Albert Spalding with his Guarnerius. This famous violin has a brilliant, singing tone. We have a second "Ave Maria" RE-CREATION played by Carl Flesch with his genuine Stradivarius. This violin has a rich, mellow tone.

Come in and compare these two RE-CREATIONS—tone for tone. If the New Edison makes clear the distinction between the singing Guarnerius and the mellow Stradivarius, you know it has perfect realism for you.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Albert Spalding himself recently took part in a test of the New Edison's Realism, at New York City. He played in direct comparison with the RE-CREATION of his performance by the New Edison. Mr. Henry Hadley, one of the jury of the three distinguished musicians who listened from behind a screen, said: "The RE-CREATION matched Mr. Spalding's performance tone for tone."

The New Edison is the only phonograph which has given this conclusive proof of its perfect realism. It has triumphed in 4,000 such comparison-tests.

PRICES! HALT!

Since 1914, the total price-increase in the New Edison has been less than 15%. Mr. Edison has, personally, absorbed more than one half of the increased cost of manufacture. He may not be able to do this much longer. Buy now—if you want today's prices. Our Budget Plan will help you. It distributes the payment over the months to come.

Mr. F. E. Saathoff of D'Hanis paid the office of the Anvil Herald a very pleasant call Monday. Mr. Saathoff came to this county in 1846 when six years old, but neither the many storms he was in, in the early days, or the Indian or civil war skirmishes bent his shoulders. He preserved his good health mainly in the peaceful occupation as a shepherd. He tanned leather and made shoes. He mentioned the time when the spinning-wheel was used by some housewives in Medina county and when cotton seed was separated from the lint by hand. About politics, Mr. Saathoff holds that at present a man who wants to be a good democrat may be obliged to vote the republican ticket.

Fritz G. Muennink's name will be found among the names in our announcement column today. He is one of the best known men in Medina county, being a "native to the manor born," and has spent his entire life in this county. There is no question as to his ability, he having long been one of the leading business men of the county. He enjoys great popularity among all classes of society and it is doubtful if there is a man in the county who has a larger circle of friends than he has. The office of Tax Collector is one of great importance, and there is no doubt but that the office will be acceptably filled should the voters of Medina county honor Mr. Muennink with the position at the November election.

Milk Separators, Holloway Bros.

J. F. Bader's name will be found among our announcements in today's paper, he again asking to be honored with the position of sheriff of Medina county for the ensuing two years. While with the model citizenship of Medina county the office of sheriff is almost a useless one, it is necessary to maintain it to protect the peace and dignity of the state against the acts of an occasional transient. Mr. Bader has efficiently filled the position of sheriff for many years and there is but little doubt that he will be named to succeed himself at November election.

Garden Hose. Holloway Bros.

Again seeking the office of Tax Assessor Lou E. Heath avails himself of the Anvil Herald's announcement column to convey that information to the good people of Medina county. Mr. Heath has been the efficient assessor of Medina county for the past several years, and the experience gained qualifies him to better serve the people than ever before. He bases his claim for re-election to the office on his past service—the proper and only criterion to judge one's fitness for any position—and if the conservative voters of Medina county will adopt this idea as their rule of action Mr. Heath has but little to fear at the coming November election.

Judge A. M. Lamm's hat is again in the ring, as an examination of our announcement column today will disclose. The Judge has long served the people of Precinct No. 1 as Justice of the Peace. In fact so long has he held the office that he should be allowed to plead the statute of limitation against any one seeking to depose him of the office, and should the opposition persist in their efforts he should arraign them for contempt of court. The office of Justice of the Peace has more honor than salary attached to it, and if it were not for notarial and other side-line attachments it is doubtful if any one could be found to fill the office. Remember Judge Lamm on election day.

FOR SALE—Two registered Duroc-Jersey gilts, and a pure bred Duroc-Jersey boar, which can be registered in purchaser's name. These hogs will be sold at a bargain, either for cash or will be traded for corn, hay or cord wood at the market price. Apply at the Anvil Herald office, Hondo. 50-1f.

After an absence of more than a quarter of a century, a part of which time was spent following Old Glory as a member of that famous fighting unit, Roosevelt's Rough Riders on the battle fields of Cuba, Oscar de Montel arrived here last Friday evening from the Rio Grande country. During the war that shocked the world he served as a U. S. scout in the west. The greater part of his life since leaving home has been full of stirring events. The past few years he has occupied himself with ranching in the Big Bend country. Having disposed of his ranch interests he is now a gentleman of leisure and Micawber like is waiting for something to turn up.

Mr. J. T. Davenport and Mrs. Cleo Dobbins were married here Wednesday afternoon, Judge A. M. Lamm officiating. The couple were strangers here and as they went from here to San Antonio we suppose they are residents of that city. From the frequency the Judge's services are being requisitioned these days we rather suspect that his reputation as a nuptial knot-tier has spread beyond the confines of Medina county and that soon he will be as famous as the Gretna Green blacksmith.

INVESTMENTS MUST BE ADVISED, SUPERVISOR OF HIGH SCHOOLS SAYS

"Texas schools where pupils are not taught the necessity of living within their incomes are failing to justify their existence, as they do not prepare pupils to be efficient citizens," said Peyton Irving, Jr., State Supervisor of High Schools of the Department of Education. State Superintendent Blanton has enthusiastically approved the teaching of thrift in all schools and most of the teachers are co-operating with the Savings Division of the U. S. Treasury in this work.

"But mere preaching is not teaching thrift," he points out.

"When pupils have been taught to save, the job is not complete; they must be shown how to invest. And it is here the moral question intrudes. For some safe and certain, guaranteed-not-to-lose securities, must be recommended, for one can no more learn wise investment without buying securities than one can master physics without a laboratory. Local investments abound; there is no dearth of persons to take a pupil's money and give a graven gilt certificate therefor. Yet no teacher could afford to characterize a local oil company as an unsafe investment.

"Under these circumstances patriotism and high ethical ideas join hands with common sense. The thing to do is to recommend the purchase of War Savings Stamps and Register of Treasury Savings Certificates. They are always worth more than they cost; they can be converted into cash at the postoffice any time at a profit, and what is more, their ownership gives, under skillful teaching, a sense of ownership in the government, partnership in the nation, that can not but improve the civic pride and patriotism of our young citizens, boys and girls who will in a dozen years control the destiny of the nation."

Triumphed Over Difficulties.

Undertaking to build a modern motion picture laboratory in a strange and empty land, without machines, chemicals or experts, demands the genius of a Robinson Crusoe plus the patience of an American business man, says Paul Norton in Popular Mechanics Magazine. Yet a complete plant so built is operating now in Vladivostok, Siberia, and is doing a great deal to acquaint the Russians with the works, purposes and general character of unknown America. When films are to be shown to an alien people, the first and most vital requisite is the translation of all titles, subtitles and "leaders." These are parts of the film, and the process of making them is just as technical as finishing the pictures themselves. Every inscription, therefore, has to be lettered in Russian on a big card, a strip of pictures taken of it with a regular motion picture camera, the negative developed, and positive prints made to cement into the film.

Nature Tells You.

As Many a Hondo Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are weak, Nature tells you about it. The urine is nature's index. Infrequent or too frequent passage. Other disorders suggest kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for disordered kidneys.

Hondo people testify to their worth. O. H. Getter, retired painter, Hondo says: "Several years ago I was taken with a terrible backache and my kidneys acted irregularly. On stooping over it was an effort for me to straighten up again. Nights I had to get up frequently to pass the kidney secretions, which were scanty, highly colored and scalding. I felt tired and worn out all the time and had no ambition to do anything. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and started their use. After taking two boxes of Doan's my back was strong and my kidneys acted regularly."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Getter had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Only a Peacemaker.

In discussing the 500-mile speedway race and the probable winning of the 1920 classic, Mrs. Know-It-All said her old favorite, Barney Oldfield, had a good chance to pull down first money.

A friend, Mrs. So-and-So, said she did not understand that Oldfield would be a driver this year.

"Oh, yes, he is," said Mrs. Know-It-All, "because I have read so much about him recently, and his picture has been in the newspapers. I saw it in a group with all the other drivers."

Mrs. So-and-So produced the paper and, pointing to the group picture, said: "See that; Oldfield is only a peacemaker."—Indianapolis News.

Cortlandt Bleeker, the New York clubman, said at the Ritz:

Mr. Bleeker made a gesture of hopelessness and disgust.

SAINT TO HAVE NEW SHRINE

Mining Operations in Cuba Caused Collapse of Church of the Virgin of Cobre.

Without papal sanction, the Virgin of Cobre became the patron saint of Cuba. Harry A. Franck relates in the Century Magazine the legend of 300 years ago which tells of how two men and a negro slave boy from the village of Cobre, not far from Santiago, went to Nipe bay to gather salt, and there they found floating on the water an image of the Virgin, bearing the Child on one arm and holding aloft a gold cross.

The figure is of wood, about 15 inches high, and gaudily decorated with the silks and jewels always given by the pious believers. Her priestly attendants have been richly showered with worldly gifts, and her shrine was surrounded with costly votive offerings, until someone ran away with most of them about the time Spanish rule in Cuba was abolished.

Some time ago copper was discovered in the hill beneath the figure of the Virgin of Cobre. An English company contracted to make good any damage to the venerated shrine. During their tenure the church suffered no injury, and the mine was worked to what was considered the limit of its real productiveness under old methods, and was abandoned.

But when the world conflict suddenly made copper worth increased exertion, Cobre was taken over by an American syndicate. The mine had meanwhile filled with water, and when the new company began pumping this out, the old supporting timbers gave way and the church of the Virgin above began to sink until, in time, it fell completely out of sight. A new shrine, like the spireless and uninspiring country churches to be found throughout all Cuba, was erected for the Virgin and her pilgrims farther down the valley.

Parrots Good Home Guards.

Cautious apartment house dwellers who besides keeping their windows and doors locked prefer some sort of burglar alarm will find able assistance by calling upon the Royal Order of Parrots and Cawwaws, says the New York Evening Sun.

The parrot's innate tendency to become articulate at the crucial moment provides an excellent means of scaring the thief and arousing the neighbors. A parrot recently yelled shrilly while burglars carried off most of the accoutrements of his master's house, but his timely warning fell upon listless ears.

The price of meat these days agonizes most of us and the small portion heretofore given to Rover, a capable but expensive guardian, noticeably increases the weekly food budget. The parrot's diet is strictly vegetarian and consists of such ingredients as figs, plantains, papaw apples, seeds and grain. He requires little attention and never becomes turbulent without due provocation.

The Deceiver.

"It was simply heartrending! They were entertaining a party of friends with a ouija board seance. The control had just assured them in the most unmistakable manner that they need fear no ill, when a noise was heard in the basement, and they got a fleeting glimpse of three robbers making off with the last of their liquor. They not only suffered the material loss, but then and there they parted forever with their faith in ouija boards."—Kansas City Star.

Big Game Increasing.

Big game animals are increasing on the four big game reservations under control of the United States department of agriculture. The report of the chief of the bureau of biological survey shows a total of 263 bison, 274 elk, 54 antelope and 21 deer, an increase in each species over the number reported last year. The number of visitors to the big game reservations is also growing, says the report.

That Egg Episode.

"This egg," said Columbus, "illustrates the fact that the world is round."

"Yes," put in King Ferdinand capotiously, "but how about the egg which dropped awhile ago and smashed?"

"That illustrates what is liable to happen to the world if some of you autocratic rulers don't show a little more prudence and foresight."

Minnie Duly Warned.

A little friends of ours had just received a bicycle for his birthday, which he greatly prized, and was riding up and down in front of the house on it. The maid was washing and leaning out of the window when she heard a little voice call up to her: "Be careful, Minnie. Don't fall out of the window and break my bicycle!"—Chicago Tribune.

Change Necessary.

"My doctor says I ought to ride a horse."

"What for?"

"I don't know. Guess he's tired of my dyspepsia and would like to treat me for a broken collar bone instead."—Boston Transcript.

As It Seems to Be.

"What does the critic say about the show?"

"He says it's a good, clean, wholesome little play and ought to be supported."

"Oh, dear, let's go somewhere else."

AMENDMENT RELATING TO TAXATION BY SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 17.

Proposing an amendment to Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by exempting independent and common school districts from the limitation of a total tax of one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation for any one year, and making an appropriation therefor.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution be so amended as hereafter to read as follows: (Creating a new Section 3.)

Section 3. One-fourth of the revenue derived from the State occupation taxes and a poll tax of one ($1.00) dollar on every inhabitant of this State, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, shall be set apart annually for the benefit of the public free schools; and in addition thereto, there shall be levied and collected an annual ad valorem State tax of such an amount not to exceed thirty-five cents on the one hundred ($100.00) dollars valuation, as with the available school fund arising from all other sources, will be sufficient to maintain and support the public schools of this State for a period of not less than six months in each year, and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to set aside a sufficient amount out of the said tax to provide free text books for the use of children attending the public free schools of this State; provided, however, that should the limit of taxation herein named be insufficient the deficit may be met by appropriation from the general funds of the State and the legislature may also provide for the formation of school districts by general or special law without the local notice required in other cases of special legislation; and all such school districts, whether created by general or special law may embrace parts of two or more counties. And the legislature shall be authorized to pass laws for the assessment and collection of taxes in all said districts and for the management and control of the public school or schools of such districts, whether such districts are composed of territory wholly within a county or in parts of two or more counties. And the legislature may authorize an additional ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within all school districts heretofore formed or hereafter formed, for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection and equipment of school buildings therein; provided, that a majority of the qualified property tax-paying voters of the district voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax not to exceed in any one year one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district, but the limitation upon the amount of school district tax herein authorized shall not apply to incorporated cities or towns constituting separate and independent school districts, nor to independent or common school districts created by general or special law.

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1920, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "For the amendment to Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing that the limitation upon the amount of school district tax of one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation shall not apply to independent or common school districts created by general or special law."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation of said election and to have same published as required by the Constitution and existing laws of the State.

Sec. 4. That the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury of the State of Texas not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

Town With No Streets.

CIVIL WAR BONDS ROSE $26.90 IN NINE YEARS LIBERTIES BETTER YET

Holders of Liberty Bonds who are experienced in dealing in securities have been frequently stampeded into selling their bonds because they have fallen below the face value," said Dinsmore W. Hume, Federal District Director of Savings for the Eleventh Federal Reserve District. "When they recall paying $100 for a bond that can be bought in the market for less, they are alarmed, fearing they made a bad investment and not infrequently have been induced to trade their government securities for those of less certain value on the promise of higher returns.

"Bonds will not remain at the present low prices. Civil war bonds sold in 1868 for $81.20, nine years later they brought $108.10, an increase of 26.90 on each $100 bond, or a raise of 33%. No one who knows anything of our history can be blind to the fact that the country is on a sounder financial basis than in 1868 and every indication points to a greater increase in prices of Liberty Bonds than Civil War bonds ever enjoyed. Wherefore, if those who bought Liberties because they wanted to support the government have as much financial understanding as they have patriotism, they will grab every bond they can carry at present market low prices; they are investments par excellence."

THRIFT IS CHRISTIAN VIRTUE, SAYS PROMINENT DALLAS BAPTIST PASTOR

"The individual who has cultivated the habit of thrift and saving secures freedom from financial worries, the effort gives a vision of higher and better things that makes his heart receptive to the Gospel," writes Dr. George W. Truett, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Dallas. Dr. Truett, who is now in Europe for a conference of church workers on post-war religious efforts, specifically recommends the purchase of Thrift and War Savings Stamps and Registered Treasury Savings Certificates.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect the Head
Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE. 30c.

The Stronger Sex.

"I don't know what the young men of today are coming to," said Mr. Smith. "In my young days there wasn't any need for all this courting. The girls then—"

But he was cut short by the coal scuttle which Mrs. Smith accidentally dropped on his toes.

"I was only going to say, my dear," he remarked, when he had recovered him composure, "that I wish the young fellow who is calling on Christabel would go away and let us get the house shut up. It's past midnight."

At that moment there entered the small boy of the household. He had been, for the last hour or so, behind the draught screen in the drawing room and vowed that he had enjoyed himself better than if he had been at a Punch and Judy show.

"It isn't his fault, pa," said the heir of the Smiths. "He can't go; Christabel's sitting on him!"—Tit-Bits.

All Titled.

The doctor's family had just moved into a more exclusive residence district and all the members were much given to boasting over this. Even the nine-year-old daughter told of it to her small playmates at school. "Why, it's just like having a title," she ended. "Everything that comes to our place has written on it after our names, 'Collett place.'"

Another little nine-year-old sniffed very disdainfully. "Oh, if that is what you mean, we've got one too," she informed the audience, "and it's almost like your'n. Right after our name on everything that comes to our house, they write, 'Collett, please.'"—Exchange.

Note of Suspicion.

"I notice," remarked Farmer Corn-tassel, "that you always go away up north when you make up your mind to go fishin' sure enough."

"That has been my custom," remarked the enthusiast.

"Well, I dunno, but it's a good idea to get so far away that the fish can't be expected to keep so's you could show your catch instid o' braggin' about it."

Don't let your children suffer. If they are fretful, peevish, puny or cross, give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea—a harmless but safe laxative for children. 35c. W. H. Windrow.

TEXAS SCHOOLS MAKE PUPILS STOCKHOLDERS OF THE GOVERNMENT

Dallas, Texas.—Pupils in six schools in six Texas towns made such unusual records in thrift work that their reports have been received by the Savings Division of the United States Treasury from Miss Annie Webb Blanton, State Superintendent of public instruction.

Lorena school is represented by the grade taught by Miss Modena Griffin, who had sixteen pupils, and under the encouragement of Miss Griffin and Miss Myrtle L. Tanner, superintendent, they owned, at the close of school, Thrift and War Savings Stamps to the amount of $1361.50. One high third grade in the Travis School of San Antonio, with thirty-one pupils under Miss Ruth E. Laidlaw, owned $1590. Miss Stella Trawick's third grade with thirty-six pupils own $1704 of the government's securities, bought as Thrift Stamps and converted into War Savings Stamps.

The Farmersville High School, with sixty-six Stamp owners, reports, according to Superintendent A. M. Blackman and Principal R. Reece, ownership of $2,999.75 in Government Savings Securities. N. O. Robbins, superintendent of the Jasper schools, entered the high school, with Mrs. Joe McCarthy in charge, which owns, according to Mrs. McCarthy $34.15 in Government savings. Miss Eva Grizzard of Waxahatchie, according to Superintendent G. B. Winn, had a class of fifty pupils, who on June 1 owned $5,650.50. Miss Grizzard's pupils own an average of $72.61 and Miss Griffin's pupils own an average of $35 each in Government Savings Securities.

"Perhaps other schools may have done as well," said Dinsmore W. Hume, Federal District Director, "but we have not been advised. Certainly these children have learned a valuable lesson as well as accumulated what is to a school child an unusually large sum of money. This work will be continued in the schools next season."

No Mystery.

"Why is Mrs. Millyuns so sought after for bridge parties? She is a very good player."

"Yes, but she always loses money, and she has so much to lose."

'COULD SHOUT FOR JOY,' SHE STATES

Illinois Woman Is Happy Over Her Restoration To Health.

"I am so happy, I feel like shouting for joy and I simply have to tell everybody I meet what Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. W. Knebell, of 619 Matthew St., Peoria, Ill. "Just a short time ago I was such a perfect wreck that I saw no hope of enjoyment in life," she continued, "and today I haven't a trouble of any kind."

"Even as a girl I was never strong and healthy and as time passed new troubles set in. Every bite I ate hurt me and I would have severe cramps, gas formed and presses around my heart so bad I had to fight for breath. My kidneys caused me to have backache until I thought it would drive me distracted and if I tried to stoop over my back felt like it would break in two, and even the weight of my clothes hurt me so much I had to have them made so their weight was all on my shoulders. When I tried to sweep the floor or cook a meal I became so weak and dizzy I had to lie down, and my nerves were so shattered I could hardly ever sleep at night. This was my condition for twenty long years—not one day, but every day and I could never get any pleasure out of life."

"When you go this way year in and year out and then find a medicine like Tanlac it just seems too good to be true. My appetite is now splendid and I eat heartily three times a day without a bit of trouble afterwards. My kidneys never bother me any more and the pain in my back has disappeared entirely. I never have dizzy spells now and my nerves are so steady I sleep all night long like a child. I am so strong that I do all my housework and never get tired, and I am so happy over my splendid health that I can hardly contain myself and I will never be able to praise Tanlac enough."

Tanlac is sold in Hondo by W. H. Windrow; in Castroyville by Joseph Courand & Co.; and in Dunlay by Louis A. Baby.

The Russians were reported to be in a few miles of Warsaw, after they took Brest-Litovsk, which fortress guards Warsaw from the east. The Bolshevik sent back the Polish armistice delegation as it had no full authority to negotiate and sign peace terms. They Poles evacuated Warsaw and moved the seat of their government to Crakow, which place the Germans had to concede to the Poles in the peace terms. The Russians inaugurate a Soviet government in the territory they hold and it seems that the government at Crakow soon will be out of power. Why This Tire Will Not Skid

A glance at the distinctive tread of the Horse-Shoe Cord Tire will tell you why this tire is so remarkably anti-skid.

Each little shoe in the Horse-Shoe tread forms a near-vacuum that cleaves noiselessly to the road after the triangular edges of the tread have cleaned and scraped away the moisture.

Such a tread takes hold of the road with a stubborn grip that makes driving safe even on slippery pavements in cars that are notorious "skidders."

You will appreciate the unusual anti-skid qualities of the Horse-Shoe Cord Tire only after we prove them to you on a wet, slippery pavement. Let us give you a demonstration.
